The Modern Tudor

Quintessentially English, the Modern Tudor architecture brings alive the charm of yesteryears. Reminiscent of a royal lifestyle, these homes feature gabled steep roofs, timber & brick work, and ornate windows – culminating in timeless architectural masterpieces.

Contemporary life – styled in Tudor

Presenting SOBHA Oakshire – quaint homes inspired by the Modern Tudor style.

Red brick finish and decorative elements give a distinct look to these row houses, that are designed for enhanced privacy.

Experience grandness with steep roofs & large windows; embrace an exclusive lifestyle with the upper crust.

Thoughtfully Designed Spaces

Experience grandeur as you enter through the double-height porch. The magnificent living room seamlessly extends to the centrally located dining area.

The attached garden in the front yard enhances privacy of the bedroom. The private garden in the backyard is spacious enough for hosting family gatherings.

What's more, there is a dedicated space for pets, and provision for a lift.

First Floor & Terrace

Ascend to the upper floor and spend quality time in the family room. Cherish the banter over a board game with your kids.

Retreat to your secluded sanctuary – the master bedroom – that has space for a large walk-in closet. The attached balcony offers soothing views of lush greenery. To top it all, the luxe bathroom has natural lighting through the clerestory window.

Step out of the lift to access the private terrace, that is designed with high partition wall and has provision for jacuzzi.
